

Dental Licensure Objective Structured Clinical Examination Steering Committee

Dr. Roy Thompson, Chair

Dr. Roy Thompson has been a general dentist practicing in Murfreesboro, Tennessee for nearly 40 years. He has served as President of the Tennessee Academy of General Dentistry and the Tennessee Dental Association, and is an active member of the ADA. In 2012, he lead a campaign to raise funding for the Interfaith Dental Clinic in Rutherford County, TN, which now provides comprehensive dental care for low income working adults. He is a former Council member of the Committee on the Young Professional (now New Dentist Committee) and Council on Access, Prevention and Interprofessional Relations (now CAAP). In addition to his involvement in the dental community, Dr. Thompson is past President of the Murfreesboro Kiwanis Club and the United Way of Rutherford County and for eight years was Chair of his church's budget and finance committee. Dr. Thompson is a graduate of the University of Tennessee's College of Dentistry in Memphis.

Dr. Craig Armstrong

Dr. Armstrong has maintained a restorative practice for 30 years in Houston Texas following his graduation from the University of Texas School of Dentistry. He is honored to have served as the President of the Greater Houston Dental Society, the Texas Academy of General Dentistry and the Texas Dental Association. In addition to his volunteer service in Texas, Dr. Armstrong is a former member of the ADA Council on Dental Practice and most recently served as the Chair of the ADA Council on Government Affairs in Washington D.C. Dr. Armstrong is a recipient of the Texas Dentist of the Year Award from the Texas Academy of General Dentistry and holds a Mastership in that organization. He also enjoys participating in many of the Texas Mission of Mercy events held throughout the state and serves as mentor to both pre-dental and dental students in Houston. He is also in the International College of Dentistry's "Great Expectations" program which is focused on discussing ethics with dental students.

Dr. David Carsten

Dr. Carsten is a graduate of Washington State University and the University of Washington School of Dentistry. Following 24 years of practicing general dentistry and 16 years as faculty at Oregon Health Sciences University and the University of Southern California, he entered the anesthesia program at Lutheran Medical Center in Brooklyn, New York. Dr. Carsten now provides mobile anesthesia at multiple practices. Dr. Carsten is a Master in the Academy of General Dentistry, a Fellow in the American College of Dentists, a Fellow in the Academy of Dentistry International, and a member of the Pacific Coast Society of Prosthodontics. He is a lecturer and published author on diverse topics and also is the recipient of the Award of Distinction in continuing education from the Academy of Dentistry International. He has held various leadership positions in the local and state dental associations, amongst them president of the Clark County Dental Society. He has served as a member of the Pacific Northwest Dental Conference Leadership Committee, national delegate for the Academy of General Dentistry, and state delegate for the Washington State Dental Association.

Dr. Edward J. Hebert

Edward J. Hebert, D.D.S., has been in dental practice in Lake Charles, Louisiana since 1984. He is a graduate of Louisiana State University School of Dentistry in New Orleans and received his Doctor of Dental Surgery Degree in May 1984. At the LSU School of Dentistry, he was recognized as and the recipient of the Academy of General Dentistry Award presented to the outstanding senior dental student; other honors include membership in the Omicron Kappa Upsilon Honorary Dental Society and the C. Edmund Kells Honorary Society. Dr. Hebert's professional and social affiliations include the International College of Dentists, American College of Dentists, and the Pierre Fauchard Academy. He is a Past President of the Louisiana Dental Association, the Southwest District Dental Association, the Calcasieu Parish Study Club, and is presently serving on the Council of Dental Education and Licensure for the American Dental Association.

Dr. Michael Kanellis

Dr. Michael Kanellis is Associate Dean for Patient Care at the University of Iowa College of Dentistry. Prior to his appointment to this position in March 2005, he was Professor and Chair of the Department of Pediatric Dentistry, also at the University of Iowa. Dr. Kanellis holds three advanced degrees from the University of Iowa including Doctor of Dental Surgery (1979), MS in Pediatric Dentistry (1982) and MS in Dental Public Health (1995). Dr. Kanellis spent thirteen years in private practice before joining the faculty at the University of Iowa on a full time basis in 1994.

Dr. Cataldo Leone, JCNDE Chair

Dr. Cataldo Leone is professor of Periodontology and associate dean for academic affairs at Boston University Henry M. Goldman School of Dental Medicine. He also maintains a hospital appointment at Boston Medical Center. Dr. Leone was awarded a D.M.D. from the University of Pittsburgh in 1983, and holds a certificate in Periodontology and a Doctor of Medical Sciences in Oral Biology degree from Harvard University.

Dr. Frank W. Licari

Dr. Frank W. Licari is dean of Roseman University College of Dental Medicine-South Jordan and has over 20 years of experience as an educator. Previously, he served as associate dean for academic affairs and professor at Midwestern University College of Dental Medicine in Downers Grove, Ill., and has also held several leadership positions at the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Dentistry and Marquette University School of Dentistry. As an international consultant, Dr. Licari has worked with over 50 dental schools on curriculum, student competency, accreditation, and faculty development. Dr. Licari holds three advanced degrees from the University of Illinois at Chicago, including Doctor of Dental Surgery, Master in Public Health, and Master in Business Administration. He is a member of the ADA, ADEA, the American Association of Public Health Dentistry, and the Chicago Dental Society, and has been recognized with the Pierre Fauchard Certificate of Merit, memberships in Delta Omega and Omicron Kappa Upsilon, and fellowships with the American College of Dentists and the International College of Dentists.

Dr. Prabu Raman

Dr. Prabu Raman has practiced dentistry in Kansas City since 1983. He is an alumnus of William Jewell College, UMKC – School of Dentistry and The Las Vegas Institute of Advanced Dental Studies. He has achieved Mastership status of The International College of Cranio Mandibular Orthopedics & Mastership of Las Vegas Institute of Advanced Dental Studies. He is also a Fellow of American College of Dentists & a Fellow of Pierre Fauchard Academy. Dr. Raman currently serves as President of the Missouri Dental Association, as a delegate to the ADA House of Delegates, Member of the ADA Council on Dental Education and Licensure, and Chair of Recognition of Dental Specialties and Interest Areas in General Dentistry Committee. He is also the Vice President of the International College of Cranio Mandibular Orthopedics (ICCMO), Past President of the International Association for Comprehensive Aesthetics (IACA), and past President of Greater Kansas City Dental Society. He is also a member of the International Association for Orthodontics (IAO), American Academy of Craniofacial Pain (AACP), and the American Academy of Sleep Medicine (AASM).

Dr. William Robinson

Dr. Robinson, chair of the JCNDE Committee on Administration, is a dentist in Florida who has served as chair of the Florida Board of Dentistry. He is a fellow of the American College of Dentists and served as chair of the ethics committee, where he contributed to "An Ethics Handbook for Dentists." He is a fellow of the Pierre Fauchard Academy and the International College of Dentists, where he served as international councilor. He graduated cum laude with a D.D.S. from the University of Tennessee College of Dentistry and received the Life Achievement Award from both the Hillsborough County Dental Association and the West Coast Dental Association.

Dr. Mark R. Stetzel

Dr. Stetzel is a full-time general practitioner known for his exceptional clinical skills, and has practiced more than 30 years in a fee-for-service setting. Dr. Stetzel earned his doctorate degree from Indiana University School of Dentistry in 1984. He is a Past President of the Indiana Dental Association and the Indiana State Board of Dentistry. Dr. Stetzel has served the ADA as a Delegate and Reference committee member as well as a member of the ADA Council on Dental Benefits. Additionally, Dr. Stetzel has served on the ADA Antitrust Task Force and is a fellow in the AGD, American College of Dentistry, the International College of Dentistry, the Pierre Fauchard Academy, and the International Academy of Oral Implantology.

ADA Staff Supporting the DLOSCE Steering Committee

Dr. Anthony Ziebert

Dr. Ziebert graduated with a B.A.-English in 1983 from the College of the Holy Cross; a D.D.S. in 1987 from the Georgetown University School of Dentistry; a certificate in General Practice in 1988 from the Veteran's Administration Hospital in Milwaukee; and a certificate in prosthodontics (1991), as well as an M.S. in prosthodontics, from Marquette University in 1994. After completion of his graduate training, Dr. Ziebert spent eighteen years as a full-time faculty member at the Marquette University School of Dentistry, serving as the Chair, Department of General Dental Sciences from 2002 to 2007. In August 2007, he came to the Commission on Dental Accreditation as Director, through October of 2012. He currently is the Senior Vice-president for Education and Professional Affairs at the American Dental Association. The ADA Division of Education and Professional Affairs includes administrative oversight of: the Commission on Dental Accreditation; the Joint Commission on National Dental Examinations; the Commission on Continuing Dental Education Provider Recognition; the Council on Dental Education and Licensure; ADA Dental Testing Services; and the ADA Library and Archives. Dr. Ziebert still maintains a part-time private practice in downtown Milwaukee limited to prosthodontics.

Karen Hart

Karen M. Hart serves as Senior Director of Operations for the Division of Education, helping to lead the Division in strategic and operational planning and the creation of effective internal and external collaborations, supporting the Senior Vice-president in senior management activities, and providing management and operational guidance to the agencies within the division. Karen also is Director of the Council on Dental Education and Licensure, leading the CDEL staff team in facilitating the work of the Council, its standing committees and its members, as well as the Department of Library and Archives Services, leading the Library and Archives staff team in facilitating the work of the Library, the ADA archives and the Library and Archives Advisory Board. In addition she provides staff support to Association task forces, workgroups, inter-agency and other special committees and undertakes other duties as assigned by the Division's Senior Vice-president. Prior to serving as Director of CDEL, Karen served as the Director of the Commission on Dental Accreditation from 1996-2005. She has been on staff at the ADA since 1985. She holds baccalaureate and master's degrees from Northern Arizona University.

Dr. David M. Waldschmidt

David M. Waldschmidt, Ph.D. is the Director of Testing Services for the American Dental Association and the Secretary/Director of the Joint Commission on National Dental Examinations. Dr. Waldschmidt has worked in the professional testing industry for over 20 years, serving as a founding Officer and Chair of the Healthcare Special Interest Group of the Association of Test Publishers (ATP), and serving two terms as Chair of the Industrial-Organizational division of ATP. He has presented at meetings of the American Dental Education Association, National Dental Examiners' Advisory Forum, National Council on Measurement in Education, Society for Industrial-Organizational Psychology, and the Academy of Management, and has authored papers published in the Journal of Dental Education and The Industrial-Organizational Psychologist. Dr. Waldschmidt graduated Phi Beta Kappa and Summa Cum Laude with an Honors B.A. in Psychology from Marquette University. He received his Masters in Industrial-Organizational Psychology from Michigan State University, and his Ph.D. in Industrial-Organizational Psychology from the Illinois Institute of Technology.

Dr. Kathleen Hinshaw

Kathleen J. (Kathy) Hinshaw, L.D.H., Ed.D., is the Senior Manager, Operations in the Department of Testing Services at the American Dental Association. Dr. Hinshaw oversees the operational and business activities in the national administration of high-stakes admission and licensure testing for the department. The department currently administers six testing programs and has two new programs under development. Dr. Hinshaw is a licensed dental hygienist and a former dental hygiene program director with 30 years of experience in academia. Dr. Hinshaw has a doctoral degree in Educational Leadership; her research involved stress and burnout of dental hygiene program directors in six Midwest states.